THE HORSE IN ART

Wednesday 29th April 2020

7pm - drinks and canapés followed by the Talk,
Valuations, Raffle and Auction of Promises

- Raffle and Auction items welcome - at Chard Equestrian Centre, TA20 4BP

BY KIND PERMISSION OF JANE GREGORY

This fascinating hour-long talk by leading auctioneer and picture specialist Richard Kay will encompass many aspects of the horse in art, including themes of bravery in war, power, mythology, racing, hunting, circuses and riding for pleasure. The many illustrations used will include works by Durer, van Dyck, Stubbs, Munnings, Frink and Hockney. The talk will span six centuries of western art in oil, watercolour and print.

Richard is a director of the renowned Lawrences auctioneers in Crewkerne and makes occasional appearances on television in Bargain Hunt and Antiques Road Trip. After his talk, he will be happy to value equine pictures brought to the event.
